

"No longer are young people sitting up all night discussing doctrine, engaging in dialectical exercises" for communism is the accepted way of doing business, the former Illinois Governor declared.

Government forces and extreme Leftist Chinese seized papers and arrested several Chinese associates here. Five editors in the extremist papers are being held. Another editor, Nai Seng rakul, who is also a laborer, is believed to be in his home.

Also taken into custody five former Assembly members have recently returned.